

Meeting with American Institute of Architects
Tuesday, May 16, 2017
1:30 pm to 2:00 pm

Topic: Discussion of EPA programs that are important to architecture industry

Attendees: Robert Ivy, American Institute of Architects (AIA), Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer

Background Information:

AIA was founded in 1857 and represents more than 90,000 members. After the election, Robert Ivy issued statement pledging cooperation to assist Trump Administration on areas of shared interest, such as infrastructure. Members of AIA objected, and Ivy walked back some of the statements.

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5